Naples, November 10.

AN Order has been publiſhed in the Emperor's Name, commanding all Subjects of the Kings of France and Sardinia to depart this Kingdom within a limited Time, excepting thoſe who have married Natives of this Country, or have been ſettled in it Ten Years. Preparations are making with all Diligence by the Imperialiſts for the Defence of this Kingdom, and ſeveral German Officers are newly arrived, and others are on their Way hither.

Milan, Nov. 18. The French and Piemonteſe Troops left to block up our Caſtle, have been employed for ſome Days paſt in throwing up Earth and making Trenches in all the Avenues to it, to cover themſelves againſt the ſmall Shot of the Garriſon. An Ingenier who adventured too near the Caſtle on the 11th Inſtant, was ſhot dead by a Centinel.

Paris, Nov. 29, N. S. There is an Account from Turin, by Letters dated the 21ſt Inſtant, that the Trenches before Pizzighitone were opened in the Night between the 17th and 18th. This Attack is not made on the Body of the Town, but on a Fort on the Side of the Adda which covers the Bridge of Pizzighitone. The firſt Approach was made with ſo little Noiſe, that the Beſiegers had covered themſelves before the Garriſon took the Alarm. The French loſt but few Men the firſt and ſecond Nights. Part of their Army was to paſs the Adda the 19th, to attack the main Body of the Place. Four Battallions and a Regimens of Dragoons were to march at the ſame Time, to take Poſſeſſion of Cremona, which the Germans had abandoned ſome Time ago.

Hague, Dec. 4, N. S. Count d'Uhlefeld, the new Imperial Miniſter, has preſented a Memorial, to demand in the Name of the Emperour, the States Leave to borrow Two Millions of Florins upon the Revenues of Sileſia. The Place of Fiſcal of the Court of Juſtice being vacant by the Death of M. Nobeling, is like to produce ſome Diſſention between the States of Holland and thoſe of Zealand, the laſt pretending it is their Turn to name to it, and the other being deſirous to put in an Hollander. The laſt Advices we have from Poland differ very much: King Staniſlaus continued at Dantzick, and it is pretended by his Friends that his Circumſtances are not in ſuch a Condition as is repreſented by the other Party. On the other Side it is writ, that the Muſcovite Army was actually marching towards Dantzick, and would ſoon oblige that Town to expel King Staniſlaus. What the ſeveral Advices deliver for certain, is, that all Poland is in Confuſion and Diſorder, and the Country plundered by both Parties. They add from Dantzick, that they had there a Confirmation of the Tartars having defeated in Ukrania a Body of Muſcovites and Coſſacks, and killed Twelve Thouſand of them.
